Films

Please watch at least one film from List A and at least one film from list B over the summer

After watching any of the films, for List A films, make a brief note of how the film might be split up into different parts/sections and what happens in each part. For List B films make a few notes about how the films try to make you scared – what makes them memorable? If you've already seen some, write notes on the ones you know and watch some of the others as well!
