

STRAND TWO: READING NON-FICTION

Step	Praise
9	All of the below and... <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. You have included more than one explanation for key parts of your quotations – offered alternative interpretations.</li> <li>2. You have examined the strengths of the text as a whole and critically analysed how these were achieved.</li> <li>3. You have confidently demonstrated the ability to examine links between one text and a different text and explained the significance of this.</li> </ol>
8	All of the below and... <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>4. You have included perceptive ideas in response to characters and/or events in the text.</li> <li>5. You have judiciously applied a range of language and structural terminology to the text and evaluated the impact of key features.</li> <li>6. You have clearly shown the ability to compare your analysis of one text to a different text and explained the significance of this link.</li> <li>7. You have made perceptive comments about the writer’s intentions in the text – thinking outside the box!</li> </ol>
7	All of the below and... <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>8. You have offered confident close analysis of a range of key words in the text and explored their significance.</li> <li>9. You have applied a range of appropriate terminology to demonstrate secure understanding of language and structural features.</li> <li>10. You have clearly explained the specific effect of certain language and/or structural features used.</li> <li>11. You have made thoughtful links to contextual information.</li> <li>12. You have confidently linked your analysis to reader response when it was written and in another era.</li> <li>13. You have confidently referenced the writer’s point of view and/or the writer’s intentions.</li> <li>14. You have confidently made reference to other parts of the text to show a confident understanding of the way the text is shaped as a whole.</li> </ol>
6	All of the below and... <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>15. You have carefully selected key quotations and embedded them within your response.</li> <li>16. You have included close analysis of more than one key word from the text.</li> <li>17. You have applied appropriate terminology in your response when analysing language and/or structure.</li> <li>18. You have made clear links to context.</li> <li>19. You have made a connection between responses to the text when it was written and during another time period.</li> <li>20. You have offered a clear explanation of the writer’s intentions – why have they made certain decisions?</li> <li>21. You have made reference to other parts of the text to clearly explore how your response links to the way the text is shaped as a whole.</li> </ol>
5	All of the below and... <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>22. You have carefully selected quotations from the text to support your response.</li> <li>23. You have offered a range of confident ideas to explain your response to the question.</li> <li>24. You have included close analysis of a key word(s) from the text to develop detail.</li> <li>25. You have shown some awareness of links to context.</li> <li>26. You have included some explanation of the effect on the reader.</li> <li>27. You have included some explanation of the writer’s point of view and/or the writer’s intentions.</li> </ol>
4	All of the below and... <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>28. You have made a confident point in response to viewpoints and/or perspectives in the text/s.</li> <li>29. You have included well-chosen quotations to support your response.</li> <li>30. You have offered a clear explanation of ideas in your own words.</li> </ol>
3	All of the below and... <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>31. You have made a clear point in response to viewpoints and/or perspective in the text/s.</li> <li>32. You have included evidence to support your point.</li> <li>33. You have offered some explanation of ideas about the text in your own words.</li> </ol>
2	All of the below and... <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>34. You have made a simple point to show understanding of opinions and ideas in the text/s.</li> <li>35. You have shown some understanding of how to explain your ideas.</li> </ol>
1	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>36. You have started to offer ideas about opinions and ideas in the text/s.</li> <li>37. You have shown simple understanding when you explain ideas.</li> </ol>